Grußwort des Präsidenten Greetings of the President

Liebe Eishockeyfreunde!

Am Ende einer spannenden und ereignisreichen Saison richtet sich nun die volle Aufmerksamkeit wieder auf die Nationalmannschaft und die diesjährige Weltmeisterschaft in Österreich.

Auch unter dem neuen Bundestrainer Greg Poss will die deutsche Mannschaft beweisen, dass sie zurecht zu den besten acht Nationen der Welt gehört.

Nach der Einführung des World Ranking Systems ist eine gute Platzierung wichtiger denn je. Durch die Platzierung unter den besten acht Nationen der Welt konnte sich die deutsche Nationalmannschaft direkt für die Olympischen Spiele 2006 in Turin qualifizieren. Nun gilt es, die Niederlagen zu Beginn der Saison zu vergessen und alles daran zu setzen, diesen achten Platz zu verteidigen.

Um dieses Ziel zu erreichen, liegen Wochen intensiver Vorbereitung hinter uns, in der die Nationalmannschaft intensiv an der Vertiefung des neuen Offensiv-Systems gearbeitet hat. Bundestrainer Greg Poss sowie seine beiden Assistenten Ernst Höfner und Bernhard Englbrecht haben dabei hervorragende Arbeit geleistet und wieder einigen jungen deutschen Nachwuchstalenten die Chance gegeben, „Nationalmannschaftsluft“ zu schnuppern und Erfahrung auf internationaler Ebene zu sammeln.

Dieses Vertrauen der Trainer sowie ein geregelter Spiel- und Trainingsbetrieb sind die Voraussetzungen, die ein junger Spieler braucht, um sich weiterentwickeln zu können und somit vielleicht auf lange Sicht eine Stütze im Nationalteam zu werden.

Eine breite Basis gut ausgebildeter Spieler ist in diesen Tagen ganz besonders wichtig. Die Belastung für jeden einzelnen Spieler wird immer größer, die eishockeyfreien Wochen immer weniger. Bereits Ende August startet die Nationalmannschaft mit der Teilnahme am Canada-Cup in die neue Saison.

Freuen wir uns nun aber zunächst einmal auf spannende Spiele und gute Unterhaltung bei der Eishockey-Weltmeisterschaft in Österreich!

Dear Ice Hockey Friends!

Another exciting and eventful hockey season has almost come to an end and all our interest is now focussed on the performance of our National team in the upcoming World Championship in Austria.

Also with its new head coach Greg Poss, the German team will prove that position 8 in the world ranking is justified.

After the "World Ranking System" was introduced, it is more important than ever to obtain a top final standing. Being ranked among the top eight hockey nations in the world, our national team could directly qualify for the 2006 Olympics in Torino. Despite of some losses at the beginning of the season, it is now the team's goal to defend this eights position in the world ranking.

To achieve this goal, the team has been working hard during the last weeks to enhance the new offensive system. Head coach Greg Poss and his assistants Ernst Höfner and Bernhard Englbrecht have done a good job and could again successfully integrate some young German prospects into the team, who got the chance to gain international experience and to breath some "National team air".

Trust by the coaches and well-organized game and practice programs are the preconditions for a young player to further develop his skills and thus, in the long run, eventually to become a key player in the National team.

To have a broad base of high skilled and well trained players is more important than ever these days. The physical strain of every single player is constantly increasing while the off-ice periods become fewer and fewer. So, the new season for the national team will already start with our team's participation in the Canada-Cup at the end of August.

But, let us look forward now to exciting games and great entertainment at the Ice Hockey World Championship in Austria!
